Ed Gardner – Had only an 8th grade education, yet became one of Kentucky’s all-time-wealthiest men.

Helen LaFrance – Never went to art school, but still learned to paint beautiful scenes, all from memory, of how Graves County looked when she was a child in the 1920’s.

Bobbie Ann Mason – Wrote books and short stories. One of her books was made into a movie, and filmed right here in Mayfield.

Kent Robbins – Country music songwriter.

Kevin Skinner – Winner of the 2009 America’s Got Talent competition on NBC.

Mickey Stubblefield – Professional baseball player; the first African-American player in the history of the Kitty League.

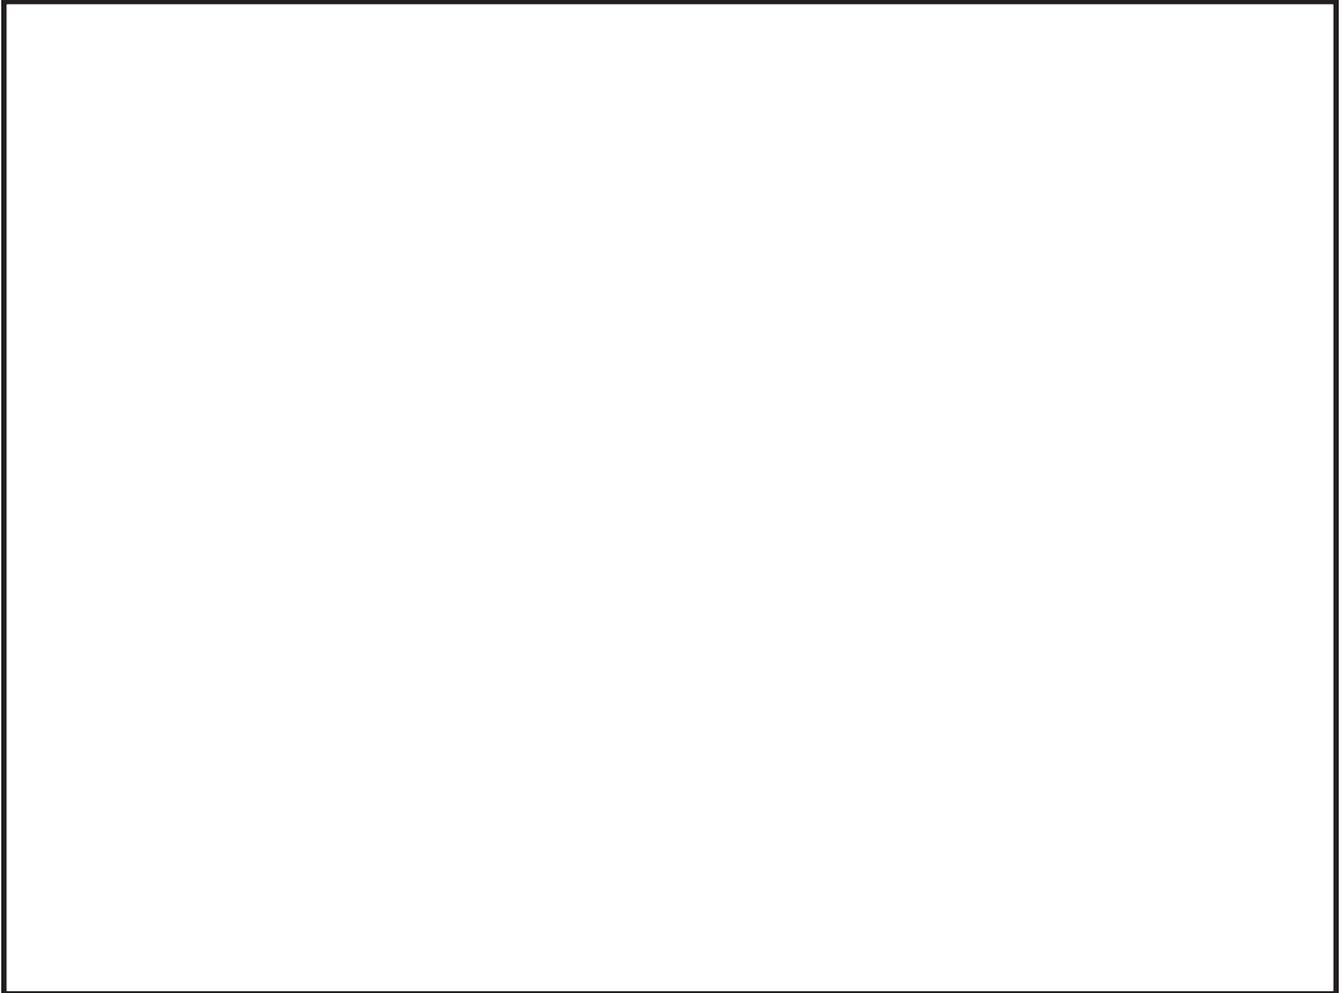

Ellis Wilson – Painter who developed his style of painting hard-working people while on a trip to Haiti.

Henry Wooldridge – Famous for the monuments that were named after him. At Wooldridge Monuments, you’ll find statues of the Wooldridge family, as well as two hunting dogs, a fox, and a deer.

Lon Carter Barton – Enjoyed writing about what Mayfield was like over a hundred years ago.

Meeting a Famous Mayfieldian

If you could spend a day with a famous Mayfieldian, who would it be? What would you ask him or her? Where would you go? Draw a picture below of your adventure together.
